

DAILY BREAD: POWER OVER SATAN.

10/04/2020

1 John 4:4 (KJV), ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.

Whoever told believers that Satan has power has so much bewitched their minds. You can't live your whole life fearing the devil. If the devil still has power then Jesus came and suffered for nothing and your salvation is in vain.

The scripture above is showing us clearly that we are from God and because of that we have overcome them (Satan and his agents), because greater is he that is in us than the one in the world. The one who is the world is Satan and the one in us is Jesus. If we believe that Jesus overcame the devil then we should believe that we also have overcome him because the same Jesus now lives in us.

James 4:7 (KJV). Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. The above scripture shows us that we have power to resist the devil, and when we resist him, he flees from us. Yes, it is true and powerful, that the devil can flee away from you. You must have this imagination in your mind of seeing the devil running away from you. Not only will he go away but he flees. This is how powerful we have become. If we know this, we will never spend time asking God to deal with the devil for us, because he already did. The devil is no longer God's responsibility but our own. God cannot do for us what he has given us power to do.

Ephesians 4:27 says "Do not give the devil a foothold/an opportunity/ chance.

You see now that the devil is given a chance by you to torment your life. If you are born again, the devil cannot force his way in you, but it's you who will give him a chance. If you don't give him a chance he will keep on prowling around you like a roaring lion seeking whom to devour. (1 Peter 5:8). Do not give him any chance.

Revelation 12:11 (KJV). And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Look, the devil is not overcome by inviting God in the fight. God has given us the tools to defeat the devil and the devil knows it. We overcome him by the blood of the lamp and by the testimony of our mouths. Those two are enough to defeat and overcome the devil. The blood of Jesus gives the devil a fright and words from our mouth are like a burning sword towards him. That is how we overcome him. Amen

Have a great day
